Now before the Court is Defendant GlaxoSmithKline LLC's ("Defendant") Motion to Stay All Proceedings Pending Transfer by the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation ("JPML") to Multidistrict Litigation ("MDL") Docket No. 1871, In re Avandia

1 Marketing Sales Practices and Products Liability Litigation (the 2 "Avandia MDL"). This case has been conditionally transferred to
3 the Avandia MDL. The above-captioned Plaintiffs oppose that
4 transfer and this motion, which is fully briefed and appropriate
5 for decision without oral argument per Civil Local Rule 7-1(b).
6 Plaintiffs also ask the Court to rule on their motion to remand
7 before deciding the motion to stay.

8 Out of deference to the MDL process and the uniformity and 9 predictability it promotes, the Court declines to decide
10 Plaintiffs' motion to remand at this time.

11 Upon careful consideration, the Court finds that staying this 12 case is warranted because (1) potential prejudice to Plaintiffs is 13 minimal, given how soon the JPML's decision is likely to issue; (2)
14 not staying the matter could expose Defendant to needless
15 litigation and inconsistent rulings in their pending cases; and (3)
16 not staying the case would waste judicial resources, since these 17 cases may be consolidated in the Avandia MDL. See Couture v.
18 Hoffman-La Roche, Inc., No. 12-cv-2657 PJH, 2012 WL 3042994 (N.D.
19 Cal. July 25, 2012) (listing factors to be considered in issuing a 20 stay); see also Landis v. N. Am. Co., 299 U.S. 248, 254 (1936) (the 21 court's power to stay cases is inherent in its ability to control
22 disposition of cases on its docket).
